Christ the King

(Last Sunday after Pentecost)

20th November 2022

REFLECTING ON GOD'S WORD THIS SUNDAY...

Reading: Luke 23.33-43

God's Messiah was crucified by the Romans incited by his enemies and was placed alongside two criminals, but Jesus still prayed to his Father that they all might be forgiven. This Christ Jesus, the creator of all things, this ruler of all dominions and powers, our head of the church, is the LORD our righteousness. By his death and resurrection, this good shepherd is gathering all the lost and scattered sheep to himself. All of us, whether we are alienated, poor, downcast, living in darkness, living in hopelessness or despair – we are all welcome in God's family.

Pray that Christ the king may reign in our lives as we seek to forgive, love and reconcile all things on behalf of our loving God.

Blessings, Fr Ron.

ST NICHOLAS CHURCH - ANNUAL PARISH MEETING

OUR NEXT MESSY CHURCH

Sunday 27th November 4-6pm

Theme: "All are welcome in God's family"

In following Jesus, we all become part of the wider family of God. Everyone who follows Jesus is equal in God's eyes, there is differentiation due to race, gender, or class. All people are of equal worth in God's family.

DIXON HOUSE CHRISTMAS APPEAL

We will again be collecting gifts for families this Advent Season on behalf of Dixon House. There is greater need than ever this year as many of their clients are doing it tougher than usual. They would like us to prioritise food this year, although toys are also needed. Please do not wrap toys, and please note they do not require soft toys.

Items for Christmas hampers as well as everyday grocery and cleaning products are most welcome.

Please consider buying smaller sizes of tea, coffee, sugar etc.

Full list of suggestions will be on the notice board.

Last day for donations will be Sunday 11th December. Any queries see Marilyn Wilson

WEDNESDAY BIBLE STUDY – 8.00AM – 23RD NOVEMBER

We meet as usual at Colin and Maylin's home - 12 Keith Avenue, Edithvale.

THURSDAY BIBLE STUDY - 7.30PM VIA ZOOM – 26TH NOVEMBER

The study will be emailed out to those in the group closer to the time.

Anyone is welcome to join the zoom meeting. Please join us using the Zoom link below...
